

Modern church leaders need help understanding where Joseph Smith obtained content for the Book of Mormon. Help them by identifying which scriptures came from Chapter 32-33 of "The Westminster Confession on Faith" a document written by the Church of England and ratified by the English Parliament in 1648. Write the correct source letter into the correct Book of Mormon scripture.

Westminster Confession on Faith

Chapter 32

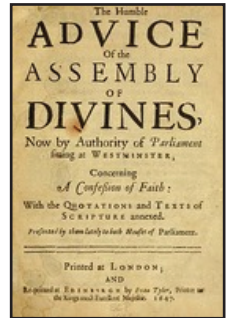

Note: all of these appear in the BofM in the same order as the original document order:

- A. "...the state of Men after death, and of the resurrection."
- B. "...their souls...return to God who gave them."
- C. "The souls of the righteous...are received into the highest heavens..."
- D. "...the souls of the wicked are cast into hell, ...and utter darkness."
- E. "...the souls of the wicked... remain in...darkness, reserved to the judgment of the great day."
- F. "...bodies...shall be united again to thier souls."

Chapter 33

These references are not in order, and although familiar do not appear in the KJV Bible in this manner, but they do appear in the Westminster Confessions with matching phrases.

- G. "God from all eternity."
- H. "infinite goodness of God."
- I. "...our first parents."
- J. "...before the tribunal of Christ."
- K. "...thoughts, words, and deeds."
- L. "...carnal security."
